President's Message

PRESIDENT'S MESSAGE, NOVEMBER 2008

First, apologies to our 2 magnificent Dons...Don Hambric was accidentally named in the last newsletter as our 2008-09 membership chair, along with his many other duties. That honor (more likely described as B*I*G J*O*B!) is actually held by Don Klinger. Thank you both for all the work you do on behalf of Fallbrook Art Association!

The Fallbrook Area Visitors' Bureau has chosen show winner and multi-dimensional long-time Fallbrook Art Association volunteer-of-any-and-all-tasks, Bill Riedell, as its featured artist for the month of October. His painting is hanging in the FAVB office in the Gem and Mineral Society's building on Alvarado between Main and Mission until mid-November. To see the article about him and all the other artists that have been featured by FAVB, go to FindFallbrook.org.

A special acknowledgment goes to the eighteen Fallbrook artists, most of whom are members of Fallbrook Art Association, who opened their studios for the first of, hopefully, what will become an annual event---the Insiders Fallbrook Open Art Studio Tour. Conceived and promoted by the Fallbrook Area Visitors Bureau, and sponsored by San Diego County Supervisor Bill Horn, the following artists did a magnificent job in welcoming visitors to their home studios. What a rare opportunity! Imagine being able to experience first-hand how these artists produce their work! Thanks, Laurenn Barker, Kelly and Trent Berning, Howard Costantino, Karen Cunagin, Maria De Castro, N. Dixon Fish, Debbie K. Forbes, Vicki Gammell, Karen Geuy, Jim Helms, Kay Kalar, Jan Lee Lumkin, Michael Maas, Les Perhacs, Jack and Natasha Ragland, and Fernanda Natale-Reynolds, for helping to promote Fallbrook as an art destination!

For inclusion in Fallbrook Art Association's newsletters, please email, on or before the 5th of each month, your "wins and acknowledgments," notices of upcoming shows, and updates on your workshops and classes to me at karen.langer.baker@sbcglobal.net. Patricia Hartman will then format everything so it can be printed, distributed around town and mailed to members and placed on our Website: www.fallbrookartassn.org in plenty of time for our next meeting.

Only active members are listed in the directory and allowed to promote themselves in the newsletters, so if you want to participate, be sure your membership is up-to-date! Directories are available at meetings and will be distributed to members. If you are an active member and cannot attend meetings, please let our membership chairperson, Don Klinger, know so he can arrange to get one to you.

Newsletters are not sent to non-members, but we have increased the number of copies distributed around Fallbrook and at our meetings for people to be able to take a newsletter for free. If you live in an outlying area, please be sure to pick up some extra newsletters at the general meetings for distribution to art-related venues in your town. If you know of an art association that might not be receiving our newsletters, please let Don know so he can make an address label for them. His email address is: klingerdr@yahoo.com.

This month, I'd like to remind all of you to contact and thank those people who have made a difference in your life. Sometimes our biggest challenges are our best lessons which, if heeded, then become our greatest blessings! I am extremely grateful to every one of you for your participation as members of Fallbrook Art Association and for everything you do for the benefit of everyone. This makes my job as your president such a joy! Have a Happy Thanksgiving!

Karen Langer Baker

FALLBROOK ART ASSOCIATION SCHEDULE FOR 2008-2009

November Meeting

WATERCOLOR DEMO

Tom Tiedeman

Tom's watercolors exhibit a bold contrast of lights and darks, realistic subjects on a loose background.

Tom's use of color is captivating and spices up his paintings. Not limiting himself to one subject area, Tom paints what interests him; from wildlife, landscapes, architectural renderings, to impressionistic florals and portraits.

From his early years growing up in Michigan City, Indiana, Tom loved drawing, nature and sports. He attended Purdue University, where he lettered in baseball and earned an Associates Degree in Industrial Illustration Technology and a Bachelor of Arts in Visual Design for Advertising. He later received a Master's Degree in Business Management from Troy State University and Computer Information Systems from National University in San Diego. Tom retired from engineering at BAE Systems, an offshoot of General Dynamics Electronics Division.

Tom served in the Air Force for twenty-four years, five in Europe. He lived in a seventeenth century thatch-roofed cottage in Cambridgeshire, where he sketched the countryside and historical architecture in pen and ink. He later moved to Wiesbaden, Germany studying under Herr Herzfeld at the Herzfeld School of Art, learning the Old Master's Technique of oil painting and other media. Tom wandered Europe, visiting galleries, museums and historical sites at every opportunity. Tom's watercolors are heavily influenced by the powerful, dark colors and contrast reflective of the Old Master's and his favorite, the Flemish 17th Century painters.

Tom's wife, Marty is an Arts Advocate working on local art projects such as the Military Tribute, three sculptures, Past Present and Future, and a Wall of Courage in Grape Day Park, Escondido. Tom is the artist and Mart is the martist. Tom is the featured artist at art organizations, where he demonstrates his techniques.

Tom teaches watercolor classes at the Joslyn Center in Rancho Bernardo, workshops through the Palomar College Venture Program and Mira Costa Community Services, and at his gallery in Escondido.

Tom works and teaches at his studio/gallery in downtown Escondido:

Announcements

VISITING THE BURTON CENTER LOBBY

For those members of FAA and the general public who wish to visit the Burton Center and see the art exhibits in the lobby, there are only two ways I know to do it. This information is from a conversation I had with the Burton Center Director recently.

1. You can attend the public events there (music and plays), the schedule is available at www.burtoncenter.com and is published sometimes in the Village News.

2. As far as I know every Sunday morning a local church conducts services in the auditorium there and it is open from about 9:00 am to 1:00 pm. Anyone can walk in and view the exhibit in the lobby during that time.

Jerry Pennington, Hanging Burton Ctr.

ART ASSIST

A big thank you to Sandi Wilks and Leslie Sweetland for getting us off to a good start with the Art Assist Program in September, teaching at the Mary Fay Pendleton School.

Another nice surprise was receiving donations totaling $225.00, thanks to several Pala Oaks and Fallbrook residents. Costs for the Program average over $100 per class.

Shirley Williams, Art Assist Director

HOLIDAY PARTY

Fallbrook Art Association's Holiday party is scheduled for Monday, December 8, 6:00-9:00 PM. This year we have a talented blues group entertaining, plus some surprise guest artists. Please mark you calendars and plan to bring your spouse and/or guest(s) to celebrate the season with us.

Bring your favorite food dish, according to the first letter of your last name:

Appetizers F - N
Salads O - U
Main Dish V - Z
Desserts A - E

Also, you're encouraged to bring any or all of the following items:

1. An unwrapped art-related gift for Toys for Tots program
2. $3.00 to contribute toward an art gift for each Art Assist Child at Christmas/Hanukah time. (We plan to present each child from Camp Pendleton Art Assist classes a set of watercolors, brush and a pad of paper.) The committee will wrap the gifts and give them out to the children before school break. Please consider joining in and donating to these causes. Thank you.
3. A smile on your face and a song in your heart, and for those who like to sing, a good strong voice!

*Sandra Wilks,
Holiday Event Chairperso*
