From Our President...

Susan Frommer

As we wind up this year's activities and look forward to Sept. when we resume our regular meetings, I want to say thank you to all who have helped this year to make FAA function. It takes the efforts of many to make a successful organization.

Speaking of which, as my tenure as president ends in December 2016, we still need someone to fill the First Vice President slot and the positions of treasurer and newsletter editor are still open.

The fact that FAA is receiving an award from Congressman Joel Anderson's office indicates that FAA performs a valuable function in San Diego County and we would not want to have it languish for lack of filling board positions. Please consider serving. We have a good time at the board meetings and you will feel good about knowing that your contribution helps provide all the wonderful demos, shows and workshops FAA sponsors and that we all enjoy.

Signups are continuing for the June 11 Plein Air competition at Myrtle Creek Nursery. What a fun day that will be in an inspiring setting. Many thanks to Julie Compton and Ruth Parker for their work on this.

Your board will be meeting this summer for a brain storming session to plot the future of FAA and start planning for the Fall Show. If you have any suggestions for changes to programs, new ideas for meetings/activities/workshops, please share them with a board member. Many heads make lighter work.

And speaking of lightness, I hope the following quote will lighten your day with a little giggle.

"Artists ought to walk a mile in someone else's pants. That way you're a mile away and you have their pants." Joe Joseph P. Blodgett

Susan

Announcements: If you are a teacher, have won a prize, are in a show, have received some kind of attention for the art you do, let us know. Send material including jpgs to phee21@mac.com by the 15th of the month.

Karen Langer Baker won two awards at the Escondido Arts Partnership show, All Mixed Up; above, a 3rd place for Homage to Degas Bather, Connections. She won first place in the Fallbrook Art of the Avocado Show, see left. Well done Karen.

Dorland Mountain Arts Colony Picnic is June 5, 4-7. You are invited. Free! Bring a dish for potluck. 36701 Highway 79 S., Temecula. Contact info@dorlandartscolony.com or call 951-302-3837 for info.

The Fallbrook Day Care Center wants artists who will donate a few hours for a Paint-In-The-Gazebo Day at The Club, an adult day care center for seniors and the disabled in Fallbrook. It is envisioned that a participatory art activity can be staged in the gazebo outside where residents can be rotated in and out for a bit of creative time. Consider volunteering a few hours of your time to this fellow non-profit Fallbrook organization. Contact Rachel Mason, mason@foundationforseniorcare.org.

Check classes at the Fallbrook School of the Arts at fallbrookschoolofhearts.org and info@fallbrookschoolofhearts.org. There is always a varied and changing range of art learning opportunities for adults and children.

Join FAA's Plein Air Group on Wednesdays. Contact Ruth Parker, rkparker2341@earthlink.net, or Carol Reardon, 760-241-5577, for locations. Below is a picture of enthusiastic painters showing their finished product a few weeks ago.
