APRIL MEETING AND DEMO

Monday April 9th, 2007 – 7:00-9:00 pm

FEATURES GUEST ARTIST

Joe Garcia

Native Californian Joe Garcia lives and works near Julian, California, where the forest of oaks and pines shelter an abundance of birds, deer and other wildlife. It is a perfect setting for an artist who specializes in painting those subjects.

Joe earned a Bachelor of Fine Arts degree with an advertising/illustration emphasis from the Art Center College of Design in Los Angeles in 1970. He worked as an illustrator and graphic designer for 13 years, and spent his free hours honing his watercolor painting skills and showing his paintings in galleries and national exhibits. Joe left the commercial work behind in 1983, and began painting full-time. He generally portrays his subjects in a tight, yet delicate center of interest, complemented by a loose, interpretive background. In addition to his watercolors of wildlife he enjoys painting oils on location and in the studio. Joe's original paintings and prints may be found in galleries and private collections throughout the United States and Canada.

The workshop will be held at the School of The Arts, 310 E Alvarado, Fallbrook, CA, Sunday, April 15, 2006, from 9:30 a.m. - 3:30 p.m.

Come to class prepared to paint. Joe will lecture and demonstrate in the morning, allowing time for students to paint until lunch break. I will work the same schedule in the afternoon with a period of time set aside for a group critique."

PRESIDENT'S MESSAGE

On April 9th our meetings return to Monday evenings. Eat 'n Critique begins at 5:30 p.m., the program begins at 7 p.m. We will see Joe Garcia's wildlife watercolor demonstration. His workshop has been sold out for over a month and those lucky people are in for a good day of painting.
