

FALLBROOK ART ASSOCIATION
FALL 2019 OPEN JUDGED SHOW
October 22 through November 17, 2019

OUR JUDGE:
JANICE CIPRIANI-WILLIS: NWS, WW (Master Signature Member)

Janice Cipriani-Willis is an accomplished watercolorist who lives and works at Dorland Mountain Arts Colony in Temecula. She holds a BA in Fine Arts from Cal State University, Los Angeles. Traveling and observation have inspired Janice to find and express in watercolor the subtle and often obscure beauty of the places and faces she has observed as well as the pieces of light that play over these forms as a marvelous mosaic. In her watercolors, in which the lightest pieces of light are the paper, she rearranges these bits of light into an image of the world's beauty.

Janice's current work has been inspired by watching people from all walks of life in situations that engender a range of human emotions. Her focus is the depth of expression seen in their faces.

She has studied with artists including Don Andrews, Gerald Brommer, Frank Francese, Fealing Lin, Ted Nuttall, and Frank Webb. Original works and reproductions are available and can be seen by appointment at Dorland Mountain Arts Colony and on her website, JaniceCipriani.com.
