President's Message April, 2010

We had a wonderful demonstration and workshop at our March meeting, given by color theory expert and watercolorist, Nancy Collins.

the position of scheduling members' work to be exhibited at the new Edward Jones office. Carol Reardon has volunteered to replace him. Thank you, Carol! As one of our past presidents and an active participant in all of FAA's activities, Carol has served over the years as our publicity and demo/workshop chair and is also continuing to head the entry day committee for our major shows. What a dedicated member!

Thank you, Sue Karr, for offering to put the entire list of DVDs onto our website. This will make it easier for everyone to decide what to borrow next. We have set aside some money to purchase new DVDs. Please let us know what you'd like us to purchase. Also, we welcome tax-deductible donations of art-related DVDs, so if you own any that you're no longer watching, please bring them to a meeting or send them to us.

Speaking of donations, we are now offering many more items for our scholarship fund "raffle" at our meetings. If you have art-related items you'd like to donate, please bring them.

As the entry date for our Open Juried Show is almost upon us, be sure to get your work ready and also plan to sign up for available sitting times during the show. There are still openings on the schedule, so call Noreen before entry day if you want to have more choices.

Thank you, everyone, for your enthusiastic participation!

Warmly, Karen Langer Baker

Please bring a box dinner or snack to eat during the critique.

Her critique of our "works in progress" preceding her demonstration was tremendously helpful to every artist who participated. It's amazing how some seemingly unimportant use or placement of a warm or cool color can make a huge difference in the quality and effectiveness of an entire composition!

Volunteers have continued to come forward to head various committees. Much gratitude goes to Marcia Flowers and Ellie Garcia for taking on apprenticeship as next year's chairs of our very important show committee. Jon Harwood and Bill Riedell have offered their assistance until Marcia and Ellie are totally comfortable taking over the job.

I am making the same offer as our nominating committee continues to search for a willing and capable person to take over the presidency. Please let Carol Reardon or Bill Riedell know of your interest in becoming the next president. If you think you'd like to take it on but would like to serve first as 1st Vice-President with the goal of becoming the following year's president, you can be assured that you'll enjoy tremendous support from me and our very capable Board of Directors.

Because of David Bean's heavy travelling schedule, he has resigned from

Elin Pendleton

Elin has been painting since the age of nine and selling her paintings since 1983. She was recognized when she was in her teens for her artistic talent by the late Millard Sheets, and since then she has studied and painted in South America, Central America and Europe. She is traditionally trained, with a bachelor's degree in fine art from San Diego State University.

Her award-winning paintings are found in both private and corporate collections throughout the United States and Europe and she continues to produce commission work. She has studied with noted artists Richard Schmid, Al Brouillette, Joyce Pike, Robert E. Wood and Ovanes Berberian. In addition, she is a skilled teacher and conducts workshops for aspiring painters featuring her Color System for getting good color, every time. She markets her work primarily through her web sites and higher-end galleries.

Elin's home and studio are located inside the Nature Preserve of Box Springs Mountain near Riverside, Southern California. Surrounded by over 8,000 acres of open space, yet minutes away from the University of California Riverside, her creative environment is an artistic Eden. She lives with a variety of domestic animals (horses, goats, dogs, cats, chickens, as of this writing) all of which have found their way into her paintings.

Ms. Pendleton will conduct a watercolor painting workshop from 9:30 a.m. to 3:30 p.m. on Saturday March 13. The workshop will be held at the Fallbrook Public Utilities Department Building, 990 E Mission Rd. The cost for the workshop is $30 for members of the FAA and $40 for non-members. Please call 951-698-7990 for information or to register for the workshop.

FAA AND BRANDON GALLERY

Currently, Fallbrook Art Association volunteers to teach art principles to the 5th and 6th graders at Mary Fay Pendleton Elementary School on the Marine Base.

Mary LaHue designed and created this program in 1992. The need for enhanced art education in schools made it an instant success. FAA volunteers of two-person teams conduct a class and guide the students with their pieces. Artwork from each class is selected for spring art shows where the public and the young artists and their families enjoy viewing their works.

The children's work from this school year will be exhibited in Brandon Gallery's Etcetera Gallery from April 1st through the 28th, when the artworks will then be moved to Mary Fay Pendleton Elementary School for a one-day exhibit and reception April 29th.

Announcements

WILL FAA CONTINUE "GOING GREEN" WITH ITS NEWSLETTERS? IT'S UP TO YOU!

In order to save paper as well as printing and mailing costs, we decided a few months ago to send everyone with an email address a reminder to go online to see the latest newsletter as soon as it was ready for viewing. The benefits to those of you who take advantage of seeing it there also include "receiving" it "hot off the press" instead of having to wait another week or more to get it via USPS. You also have the opportunity to see all photos in full color.

We have noticed that our costs are pretty close since we no longer have enough mailings to qualify for bulk mail and must send each one at 1st class rates.

If you prefer to go back to receiving your copy via the postal service, please let us know by contacting Don Klinger. In any case, we will continue notifying you via email.
