President's Message February, 2010

What special plans do you have for Valentine's Day? Have you thought of treating yourself to an "Artist's Day" where you and your loved one(s)... or you by yourself ... go to a gallery, museum or other art-related place for the day? There's so much inspiration surrounding us if we just take the time to explore it.

There are also many wonderful exhibits throughout the year at the Fallbrook Art Center, including our own FAA-sponsored Open Juried Show which will be held in April. Consider taking a class at the Fallbrook Art School where you can learn a new skill or hone an existing one in a choice of several mediums.

Have a wonderful month!
Warmly, Karen Langer Baker

There's plenty to see right here in Fallbrook!

The FAA Directors and Chairs of Committees' Show at Brandon Gallery ends January 31st, so if you haven't gone there yet to see it, please do! Think, too, about being part of another show like that next year by becoming an active participant in FAA. There are a few positions becoming available and possibly more in the future. Just call Bill Riedell, who's chairing the nominating committee, and discuss your interests with him.

One of the most valuable services we perform as a charitable organization is volunteering to teach art to the sixth graders at Mary Fay Pendleton Elementary School one-half day once a year. We are looking for a new co-chair with Don Hambric to help organize the schedule. Please call him and ask him about it.

Even if you don't want to co-chair, you can still participate. You do NOT need any teaching skills! There are ways you can assist someone who's in charge of the actual teaching until you feel comfortable

WATERCOLOR DEMONSTRATION

The next meeting of the Fallbrook Art Association will be held at 7 p.m. on Monday February 8, at the Fallbrook Public Utilities Department Building, 990 E. Mission Rd. Tom Fong will be the featured artist and will be presenting a watercolor painting demonstration at the meeting. Prior to the demonstration and meeting there will be an informal critique session from 5:30 to 6:30 p.m. Artists may bring one or two paintings that are in progress in any media and will receive instructive comments from Fong. The public is invited to attend the meeting and demonstration.

Fong is a native of California and graduated from the University of Southern California with a Bachelor of Science Degree in Industrial Design. He is known for his bold and spontaneous watercolor paintings. His works have been included in national juried exhibitions and many art publications, such as Watercolor Artist, Artist's magazine, and American Artist. Fong is a signature member of Watercolor

West and has served as that organization's president. He teaches at various colleges and conducts workshops nationally and internationally.

Fong will be presenting a watercolor painting workshop from 9:30 a.m. to 3:30 p.m. on Sunday February 14. The workshop will be held at the Fallbrook Public Utilities Department Building, 990 E Mission Rd. The cost for the workshop is $30 for members of the FAA and $40 for non-members. Please call 951-698-7990 for information or to register for the workshop.

BRANDON GALLERY FEATURES WELL-KNOWN PORTRAIT ARTIST IN FEBRUARY

FALLBROOK, CALIF., Jan. 25, 2010 --- Brandon Gallery announced that Elizabeth Taft, an award winning portrait artist, will hold a special showing in its Etcetera Gallery during February.

Proficient in oil and acrylics, Taft entitles her Feb. 1-28, 2010, exhibition: "About the Face" in which she displays portraits and portrait styles that reflect her "love of the beauty around her and in others". She says, "Ever since childhood I have been drawing pictures of people to tell their stories. Each face has a story to tell and my job is to capture it with the most integrity that I can; and when I do, their stories become a small part of my own."

A professional artist for 25 years, she has won numerous honors and accolades in local and international competitions. In addition to a busy schedule of gallery showings and competitions, Taft conducts workshops and is an active member of the California Art Club, Laguna Plein Aire Association, Oil Painters of America, the San Diego Watercolor Society, San Diego Portrait Association and the Portrait Society of America. Taft has a Bachelor of Arts degree in fine art from San Diego State University, pursued post graduate studies at University of California San Diego and studied art in Greece and Italy.

Fallbrook Brandon Gallery (www.fallbrookbrandongallery.org), 105 N. Main St., one door off Alvarado in the Village of Fallbrook, is a non-profit artists' co-operative with 29 members representing many major creative disciplines. Each month member and guest artists from San Diego and Riverside counties display hundreds of pieces of art that include textiles and sculpture, jewelry and gourd art, oil and acrylic paintings, watercolors and pastels, greeting cards, printmaking, photography and digital media.

Farmer's Market

As you may have heard, there will be a Farmers Market every Sunday beginning September 6th from 11 AM to 3 PM. It will be set up in the Village Square and in the Caffe Primo parking lot. We have a wonderful mix of vendors participating including certified farmers, food vendors and crafts. As a promotional outreach, funded by the Fallbrook Village Association, we would like to include one artist at each Sunday Market. You will receive a space, free of charge, to set up, demonstrate and sell your work. Artists will be chosen on a first come/first serve basis. If you would be interested in participating, please contact Jeannie Hathaway at 760-723-8384 or 760 390 9726 (cell) or email jeannie@deadlinedata.com for scheduling and additional details.

THE KENNETH A. PICERNE FOUNDATION ARTIST OUTREACH PROJECT 2010

The Artist Outreach Project gives accomplished visual, performing and literary artists, age 55 and older, the opportunity to contribute to their community by providing educational, mentoring and therapeutic art experiences to an underserved group served by a nonprofit organization.

Selected artists receive grants of $12,000, paid out at $1,000 per month over the course of a year. Artists may submit requests for reimbursement for materials directly related to their project. Grants are intended to fund six to eight hours of weekly contact time with an underserved group chosen by the artist. Foundation staff is available to help artists select a nonprofit organization that provides programs to an underserved population and fits the interests of the artist.

The main objectives of the Artist Outreach Project are:

To support accomplished visual, performing and literary artists who want to "give back" by sharing their talent with a group served by a nonprofit organization

To provide high quality educational, mentoring and therapeutic art experiences to people who would not otherwise have the opportunity to work with an accomplished artist-in-residency

To be eligible for the grant, an artist must be:

55 years of age or older

A resident of North San Diego County or Orange County, A practicing artist in the literary, visual, or performing arts.

Application process:

The Foundation will begin accepting Artist Outreach Project applications on January 4, 2010. The application deadline is March 30, 2010.

Prior to submission of an application, interested artists are encouraged to discuss their ideas with the Foundation staff in a phone call or e-mail. Qualified artists with ideas that meet project criteria will be encouraged to submit a formal application. Application materials can be downloaded from the Foundation website, obtained by phone, or by e-mail request.

FOR MORE INFORMATION:

Visit the Foundation website at www.picernefoundation.org or contact Victor Nelson, Executive Director, at 949-267-1517 for additional information about eligibility requirements and submitting an application for the Artist Outreach Project.

SHOW CHAIR VOLUNTEERS NEEDED

The FAA needs one or two volunteers to chair the art show(s) for next year.

The Show Chair job is quite interesting and provides unique opportunities to learn the entire process of mounting an art show. It is an opportunity to use and sharpen people skills while working with a group of volunteers. It also provides a unique "birds eye" view of the complete process of designing the show space, the evaluation of the artwork by a professional judge and of mounting of the final show. It is an unparalleled learning experience. FAA has an unmatched group of highly skilled volunteers with expertise all aspects of the show from organizing intake day and judging day through expert placement and lighting of the artwork as the show is assembled. I have been overwhelmed by the willingness of members to help with the show and by the extraordinary skills they bring to the show.

The Show Chair or Co-chairs handle the overall coordination of shows presented by the FAA. This involves being available throughout the week beginning with Entry Day through the show opening night. The chairpersons are not required to work "full time" during the week, but the chairperson needs to be available to solve problems that arise during that time.

Comprehensive resources are available to train the new show chair volunteer(s). All aspects of show preparation have been written up and updated to reflect recent changes, this allows the show chair volunteer access to a "how to" manual on show processes and procedures. All materials needed to operate the show are prepared well in advance.

If a volunteer or volunteers are available to begin learning during this coming Spring show they will receive the best orientation and training we can possibly provide. Bill Reidell and I will be able to give hands on training throughout the entire process of mounting the Spring show. Further, I will be available to continue the training process through the November 2010 show.

Please consider volunteering as a show chair or co-chair soon. Both Bill Reidell and my availability to teach new show chairs is time limited. Bill and I will be leaving the Show Chair position following the Spring show. I will no longer be able to serve as a Show Chair trainer following the Fall 2010 show. So please consider joining us to learn these exciting jobs. For information contact myself, Bill Reidell, Karen Langer-Baker or any FAA board member.

Jon Harwood, Assistant to the FAA Show Chair

WILL FAA CONTINUE "GOING GREEN" WITH ITS NEWSLETTERS? IT'S UP TO YOU!

In order to save paper as well as printing and mailing costs, we decided a few months ago to send everyone with an email address a reminder to go online to see the latest newsletter as soon as it was ready for viewing. The benefits to those of you who take advantage of seeing it there also include "receiving" it "hot off the press" instead of having to wait another week or more to get it via USPS. You also have the opportunity to see all photos in full color.

We have noticed that our costs are pretty close since we no longer have enough mailings to qualify for bulk mail and must send each one at 1st class rates.

How do you feel about how you receive our newsletter? Do you like being notified via email that you can access the latest newsletter by going to our website or do you miss receiving a copy of it in your mailbox even though it's all black and white?

If you prefer to go back to receiving your copy via the postal service, please let us know by contacting Don Klinger. In any case, we will continue notifying you via email.
