Dear FAA Members...

It was great to see you all at the general meeting on February 17th. We are lucky to have these demos to draw our tribe of artists together. I am looking forward to Cathy Carey with her multi-media twist on art. Hope to see you March 10th at 5:30. We have been asked by the Library not to come in too early. We do not want to disturb the group before us in the community room

The opportunity to take workshops is one of the benefits of membership. I hope you will take the advantage to learn something new, even if you only take one really important piece of knowledge away from each session.

The open juried show take-in day will be March 31st. The prospectus is in this newsletter. FAA is honored to have this show in the beautiful Fallbrook Art Center. We must all gear up to submit our best pieces. This juried show is almost a month long. It will be necessary for each of you to sit in the show. The committee is working hard to make everything run smoothly. Good luck to you all.

The Plein Air Show at the Brandon turned out very well thanks to the efforts of Ruth Parker and her committee. I hope you had a chance to see it.

IMPORTANT SCHEDULE CHANGE: Board members please mark your calendars. The board meeting is Wednesday, March 5th at 3:30 at the library, not 4:15 as is usual.

Happy painting, Carol Reardon

OPEN JURIED SPRING SHOW

Fallbrook artist, Igor Koutsenko will judge the Spring Juried Art Show held April 4 through 27 at the Fallbrook Art Center, 103 S. Main. Artists in the San Diego area are invited to enter March 31 from 10 to 3:00 pm at the Art Center. FAA membership is not required though members receive favorable entry fees. Entrants may join at the time of registration. Show details appear on the next page in the Call for Entry.

A new requirement for entrants is sitting the show. Entrants must either sign up to sit or pay $20 for a substitute at the time of registration. This requirement has become necessary as a part of show management.

Judge's Statement

Igor Koutsenko has this to say about his judging task in April: "I am looking for artwork that is well executed and shows a high degree of professionalism in the artist's chosen style. The piece touches the human heart and soul in one way or another. Last but not least the presentation of the work is important."

Igor was born in the Crimean Peninsula on the Black Sea. He was recognized as an artist with talent as a child and received training in the traditions of Russian realist art. He migrated to the US in 1992. In 1995 he was granted permanent US residency. In 1998 he was attracted by the beauty of Southern California and settled in Fallbrook where he teaches drawing and painting and has a private studio.

(See page 3 for some of his paintings).

SHOW JUDGE

Classically trained artist Igor Koutsenko was born and raised on the Crimean Peninsula. He emigrated to the US in 1992 and taught fine art at the University of Central Oklahoma. His work has been shown and collected internationally. His work evidences expertise in a diversity of mediums that include acrylic painting, woodcutting, intaglio and drawing in a variety of genres. See an example of his work, next page.

Koutsenko's work is heavily influenced by classic Russian design. Below is one of his paintings which are often whimsical, always highly creative.

She has won numerous awards.

She works in a series, goes to a location, takes photos, paints, and makes notes on how the place 'feels' to her. She says she is driven to enhance color and is not even sure she sees color the same way others do. She is drawn to images of fleeting moments, patterns and textures of light and the illumination and shape of objects. She works in acrylic, watercolor, pastel and oil. This demo will focus on oil. Her workshop will be on acrylics though oil painters are welcome. Her website is www.artstudiosandiego.com

Welcome New Members, Shelly Krogh, George Moore, Patricia Moore, Wilma Creighton and Mary Winter. We look forward to seeing you and your art in coming events.

Plein Air Show at Brandon

The second Annual Plein Air Show was held at the Brandon Gallery Feb. 7-28 with a reception Feb. 7. Winners were: 1st - Penny Fedorchak, 2nd - Susan Keith, 3rd - Patricia Korzec, Honorable Mentions, Ruth Parker, Carilyn Vice, Patricia Korzec, and Linda Gilbreath. Rikki Reinholtz judged. Thanks to Francine Pender for the photos.

Barbara Fox Demo

Barbara Fox demonstrated to a group of 40 interested FAA members and guests Feb. 17. She had much to say about color, technique and design that was general to art, not specific to her style which is highly detailed. A three-stage demo of her trademark M&Ms was on display. Whether or not, as a painter you strive for careful shadows under each M&M as she does, her use of washes and colors was universally of interest. We were fortunate to be in the presence of such a high calibre artist and teacher. Go to Barbara's demo blog, www.BarbaraFoxStudio.blogspot.com for ongoing instructions. Thanks to Karen Langer Baker for the photo below. Susan Keith seems to be in all the right places. Here she is again, the winner of the chickadee.

Change-Out at Bob Burton Theater--Open to FAA members only, the change-out at the Bob Burton Theater is Saturday, April 12, 9:30-12:30 for drop off and pick up. Only 42 pieces will be accepted on a first-come basis though works not deemed suitable for general viewing will not be accepted. All media except 3-D is accepted, framed and ready to hang (no saw-tooth). Artist name, phone number, email, title of work, medium and price must be affixed to the back. There is no theme but works depicting the performing arts are particularly welcome. Contact chairman Bev DeVilbis, 760-723-6123, for information.

Entrants are limited to two pieces with a $5.00 fee for each, cash or check. Works will hang for six months and may not be removed before the next changeout. Inquiries regarding sales will be handled by Bev DeVilbis. The artist is responsible for all transactions including sales tax.
